Southern District of New York

Re: WWE v. JAKKS Pacific, Inc. et al. 04 Cv 8223 (KMK)

Dear Judge Karas:

We represent plaintiff World Wrestling Entertainment, Inc. As I believe you know, my partner, Jerry McDevitt, is carrying the laboring oar for WWE in the matter. As a result of an unforeseeable matter that has arisen, we write to request a brief adjournment in the schedule set by your Honor.

Pursuant to your Honor's order, we received submissions from two of the defendants on Friday. Regrettably, Mr. McDevitt's close friend died in an automobile accident on Saturday. If your Honor desires, we can provide you details as to how this matter affects Mr. McDevitt's ability to compose the response currently due on Friday. In any event, we respectfully request that WWE's reply to the submissions be adjourned until Wednesday, May 25, 2005.

As I informed you, I am traveling and have asked Ms. Wilkins to sign my name to this letter.

Respectfully submitted,

Eugene R. Licker
